Downloaded from Blogs on 09.10.2026 03:33h

By PwC Deutschland | 28. Juni 2011

Former Yugoslav treaty applies to Kosovo

Germany and Kosovo have agreed to follow the German/Yugoslav double tax treaty in their mutual tax relations.

Downloaded from Blogs on 09.10.2026 03:33h

Germany and Kosovo have agreed to follow the provisions of the 1987 German/Yugoslav double tax treaty in their mutual tax relations. The agreement entered into force on June 10, 2011. With this agreement, there is full German tax treaty coverage of the former Yugoslav territory. The old treaty continues in force with respect to Bosnia-Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro and Serbia, whilst new treaties have been concluded with Croatia, Macedonia and Slovenia.

Schlagwörter

Kosovo, Yugoslav, double tax treaty