

By PwC Deutschland | 04. November 2022

Extension of the deadline for submitting the declaration for the determination of the real estate tax value

Certain Federal States have granted a filing extension for the filing of declarations for the determination of the value of real estate for real estate tax purposes.

The tax authorities of the Federal States that apply the so-called "federal model" for real estate tax - namely: Berlin, Brandenburg, Bremen, Mecklenburg-Western-Pomerania, North Rhine-Westphalia, Rhineland-Palatinate, Saarland, Saxony, Saxony-Anhalt, Schleswig-Holstein, Thuringia - have extended the deadline for the electronic submission of the declaration for the determination of values for real estate tax purposes until 31 January 2023.

Source

The Federal Ministry of Finance published an amended request to submit the declaration today. (BStBl. I 2022, page 1448)

Schlagwörter

Real Estate, real property, tax returns